"Mr. Kaufman's script impressively and unobtrusively makes musicology accessible to the uninitiated without professorial condescension." — The New York Times

A musicologist trying to accomplish her life's work in the face of a debilitating disease and an estranged daughter. A composer coming to terms with his genius. And, even though they're separated by 200 years, these two people share an obsession that might, even just for a moment, make time stand still. Drama, memory and music combine to transport you from present-day New York to nineteenth-century Austria in this extraordinary American play about passion, parenthood and the moments of beauty that can transform a life.

Nominated for 5 Tony Awards in 2009 including Best Play, Best Performance by a Leading Actress (Jane Fonda), Best Performance by a Featured Actor in a Play (Zach Grenier), Best Scenic Design of a Play, Best Lighting Design of a Play.
