November 4- December 3, 2011

Louisa May Alcott's beloved classic is now a delightful musical for the whole family and showcases all of the highlights from her famous novel about Jo, Meg, Beth, Amy, and their adoring Marmee. Managing even through the holidays while their father is away at war, the March women stick together with laughter and love as they fight for their dreams and face challenges still relevant today. The daring re-enactments of Jo's blood and guts stories lend an air of adventure and excitement to the story, while the girl's trials with feisty Mr. Laurence, his charming grandson, Laurie, the dashing tutor, Mr. Brooke, the quiet Professor Bhaer, and curmudgeonly Aunt March make for a evening full of color and fun!
